Everything was ready when Laurie returned. The afternoon passed slowly. Meg and her mother sewed(缝纫), Beth and Amy prepared supper and Hannah did the ironing(熨烫). It was dark when Jo finally arrived home. She had a very strange expression on her face. She put some money in her mother's hand and said, "This is for Father. Buy something nice for him and bring him home!"

"Twenty-five dollars! My dear, where did you get it?" said Mrs. March in a surprised voice.

"I earned it," replied Jo, taking off her hat.

Everybody in the room gasped(倒抽气). Jo's hair was as short as a boy's.

"Your hair! You cut your beautiful hair!" cried her mother. "It wasn't necessary to do that!" She touched her daughter's head and kissed her. "You don't look like my Jo any more. But I love you the same!"

"Why did you do it?" asked Amy. She couldn't imagine cutting her own pretty hair.

"I wanted to do something for Father," replied Jo.

Mrs. March looked at her and smiled. She understood and she was proud of her daughter. At night, Jo sobbed(抽泣) very softly. "Jo! You're crying!" said Meg. "Are you worried about Father?" "No, not now." "Why then?" "My hair!" - From the novel Little Women 4. Mrs. March was surprised because A. If you really get lost, this is what you should do. Sit down and stay where you are. Don't try to find your friends-let them find you by staying in one place. There is another way to help your friends or other nearby people to find you. Give them a signal(信号) by shouting or whistling(吹口哨) three times. Any signal given three times is a call for help. Keep up shouting or whistling always three times together. When people hear you, they will know that you are not just making noise for fun. They will let you know that they have heard your signal. They will give you two shouts or two whistles. When someone gives you a signal, it is an answer to a call for help. If you don't think that you will get help before night comes, try to make a little house with branches(树枝) with lots of leaves. Make yourself a soft bed with leaves and grass. What should you do if you get hungry or need drinking water? You would have to leave your little house to look for a river. Don't just walk away. Pick off small branches and drop them as you walk so that you can find your way back. The most important thing to do when you are lost is-stay in one place. 47. If you get lost in a forest, you should A. stay where you are and give signals three times B. walk around the forest and shout so that your friends could hear you C. try to find your friends as soon as possible D. try to get but of the forest and shout for help 48. When you hear two shouts or two whistles, A. you should shout more loudly B. you can whistle three times C. it is an answer to your call for help D. you should try to run to them 初二英语 第

49. This passage mainly tells you A. when you hear a signal always three times, it is a call for help B. what you should do if you get lost in a forest C. any signal given twice means an answer to a call for help D. how you can live longer in a forest D I have a neighbour. We call her 'Happy'. I have never seen her angry at anything and never heard her say a bad word to anyone or about anyone. Happy and her husband Ben, have a large garden. They spent many happy hours together working on it. Most of the neighbours watched interestingly when Ben doubled(把.....增加一倍) the size of their garden. Because the cost of food climbed faster than Ben's beans(豆), we all wished we also had such a large garden. As the rest of us spent our dollars at the market, Happy was picking beans in her back yard. Last month, Happy and Ben invited most of the neighbourhood over for an "all-day food party". She told us to bring gloves(手套) and arrive very early in the morning. We didn't know what was about to happen. By 9:00 a.m., there were nine of us in the garden picking tomatoes, beans and pumpkins. By 10:00 am, there was lots of laughter. We shared a lot of stories. By 5:00 p.m., everyone was a little drunk from the wine and beer. After dinner, we played games. As we were leaving, Happy and Ben handed each of us a shopping bag full of the bounty of the day, already packaged and frozen. What a wonderful gift! Well, the point wasn't so much about the food. The true gift was a day of friends enjoying each other's company(陪伴). Now they have a blog about gardening. I can often find useful information from it. And I am so proud of my tomato plants! 50. We can infer(推断) that Happy and her husband Ben B. sometimes quarrel(吵架) with each other A. don't like spending time with others D. are generous and warm-hearted C. live by selling food at the market 51. That is exactly the first step of making friends. Realize your fear. Some of us see meeting new people as a terrible event. We are worried about making a bad impression(印象), how to let the conversation go end and so on. Actually, all these fears are just in our head.

Be yourself. 55 Just be yourself. You can meet real friends when you are who you are. The truest friendship is built with both accepting each other for who they are.

This connection between you and the other one can only begin when your heart is open. You can't form any new connection if you mistrust others. It'll send the wrong information and cause them to close off their hearts to you, too.
